There is no law
regulation about
AAI in Poland.

The only official document is the list of professions with the name "kynoterapueuta/dogoterapeuta"

But there is no information about the education of the handler and no requirements for dogs.

The PADA protocol

STANDARDISATION in DOGS

The background of the slide consists of a light grey map of Europe, with the landmasses clearly outlined. In the bottom-left corner, there is a faint, semi-transparent image of a dog, possibly a Border Collie, sitting and looking towards the right. The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent teal rectangular area.

Why do we use PADA?

It is standardized

We can use it in different countries and compare the results.

It is scientific

The protocol has scientific background

It is easy to use

You score the dog with an application

It is complete

The PADA protocol has detailed manual with guidelines how to work with it

It meets IAHAIO guidelines

And helps to choose proper dog, tested by professionals.

It helps science

One, international database helps to compare the results of PADA test without the borders.

A young child with dark hair, wearing a grey long-sleeved shirt, is crawling on a light-colored wooden floor. To the right of the child, a large, fluffy white dog is standing on a colorful, patterned mat. The dog has a yellow collar with a tag. In the background, a person in a blue shirt and jeans is partially visible, and another person is sitting on a red sofa. The scene is indoors, possibly in a playroom or a community center. A semi-transparent grey overlay covers the middle of the image, containing the text.
